While I applaud the efforts of all those that contributed towards the effort of creating this manual, I do however take objection to turning this into a promotional piece for the QO High School mulch sale. My family and others in this community work tirelessly with BSA Troop 1760, who also happen to sell mulch each year. Troop 291, Loews, Home Depot, and Potomac Garden Center do as well. Inasmuch as I would like to see this Troop 1760's mulch sale promoted in this document, it is not the appropriate venue for advertising. I respectfully request that any references of this sort be stricken from all future printings or any current postings on the web. Your response is appreciated.

Sincerely,

Rob Blaker
